16 May 2016

Dear Valued Members

Thank you to our members who attended our AGM on Sunday 10th April.

This year's AGM brought the 2 year term to a close and a new committee was formed to take the association forward for the next 2 years. We take this opportunity to thank the members of the previous committee for all their hard work, dedication and enthusiasm over the past 2 years. We also welcome back and thank the previous committee members who chose to stay on another term alongside our NEW and enthusiastic members looking to make a difference and carry forward the passion and culture of Sardinia for our members.

Listed below are 11 passionate & patriotic committee members. If you require more information
